Please join us at our annual Coffee Hour, where Rhode Island legislators and environmental advocates unite to shape the 2025 legislative agenda. This year's event will feature inspiring remarks from House Speaker K. Joseph Shekarchi and Senate Environment and Agriculture Committee Chair V. Susan Sosnowski, as well as a presentation of ECRI's legislative priorities from President James Crowley and VP of Policy Angela Tuoni.

Whether you're a legislator, an environmental enthusiast, or simply curious about advancing policies for a sustainable future, this is your chance to connect, collaborate, and make an impact. We hope to see you there!
